*Introducing the Judges
All Rounder
Mick Taylor (Bruernish)*

In partnership with my wife, we have owned and shown Beardies for over thirty years, and our Bruernish affix was granted in 1982.

I first judged Beardies in 1984, and awarded CCs for the first time in 1996, and have judged them on a regular basis both here and overseas since then.

I am now passed to award CCs in four other Pastoral breeds (Australian Shepherds, Border Collies, Rough Collies and Polish Lowland Sheepdogs) and was honoured to judge the latter at Crufts in 2005, and recently judged my first Pastoral Group at Championship Show level at Driffeld in 2016.

It has been my good fortune over the years to have judged most of the other breeds in the Pastoral and Working Groups, both Groups and Best in Show at Open Show level, and have judged Club Open Shows for Briards, Old English Sheepdogs, Rough Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs.

I am currently on the A3 List for Briards, Hungarian Pulis, Old English Sheepdogs and Shetland Sheepdogs; B lists for Estrela Mountain Dogs, Pyrenean Sheepdogs (Long Haired), Bernese Mountain Dogs and Bouvier des Flandres.

I am honoured to be invited to be the All Round Judge at the East Anglian Collie Association Collie of the Year Contest, and am very much looking forward to it.

*Introducing the Judges
Specialist
Pat Hutchinson (Karibuni)*

I began showing Rough Collies in 1978 and first judged the breed at a Limited Show in 1982. I now award CC's in Rough Collies, am on the A3 list for Smooth Collies and Shelties, and have recently judged my first Border Collie Club show. I have also had the pleasure of awarding Rough Collie CAC's in Russia, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Austria and the Irish Republic; Smooth Collies in Norway, Germany and Austria; and Shelties in Russia and Austria.

I judged my first Open Show Pastoral Group in 2010 and have since had the good fortune to judge the Group on many occasions.

Between 1985 and 1996 I enjoyed the role of Secretary of the East Anglian Collie Association and, following a ten year break, was elected back onto the committee in 2006. I am currently the Club's Health Coordinator and Web Master.

2001 saw the publication of 'Rough Collies of Distinction', co-edited by Dureen Bridge, the late Iris Combe and myself, which sold well both at home and abroad.

I joined the KC's Assured Breeder Scheme in 2004 and in 2009 became the first KCABS adviser for East Anglia, a role I enjoyed until 2014.

In 2015 I made the difficult decision to curtail my showing and breeding activities, although three generations of home-bred Collies still share our home. Despite only ever keeping three to four dogs at any one time, breeding one litter each year and showing occasionally, I am proud to have bred a CC winner, two Res CC winners and a multiple CAC winner in Europe.

I am honoured to be asked by the EACA to be the specialist judge at today's 'COLLIE OF THE YEAR' Contest – thank you! Congratulations to the EACA on its Diamond Jubilee
