Introducing the Judges All Rounder

*Roger Bathurst
(Auldfyn)*

We, my wife and I, have had Shetland Sheepdogs since 1974, also for several years we had West Highland White Terriers and a GSD.

After Stewarding for Obedience classes I started stewarding for Breed Classes in 1979 whilst Mary showed our dogs. Over the following years I regularly stewarded at most of the General Championship shows, including all four days at Crufts for many years. Due to the expense of driving long distances after retiring and moving to Suffolk I now only steward for a few local shows.

I first judged Shetland Sheepdogs at Open shows in 1984, then Rough Collies in 1989 and Border Collies in 1990 and over the next few years many other breeds in the then Working Group before it was split into Pastoral Group and Working Group. I first judged Smooth Collies in 2004 and have judged them a few times since including at the London & Provincial Collie Club. I also have judged AV Pastoral and the Pastoral Group several times at Open shows.

I awarded CCs for Shetland Sheepdogs in 1998 for the first time and fairly frequently since then including Shetland Sheepdog bitches at Crufts in 2017. I was passed for CCs in Border Collies in 2007 and have judged them a few times since. I have also judged Shetland Sheepdogs and Border Collies in Holland.

Introducing the Judges - Specialist John Blake (Corydon)

I come from a very large family, but I am the only one who is interested in animals. I had a pet rabbit when I was very young. Then I kept Hamsters. When I was 16, I went to Crufts in 1953 but I only went to look at dogs as I did not know what breed I was interested in. I was in Royal Airforce uniform when I went again in 1955 after the show was cancelled in 1954. I had then decided I liked Rough Collies so spent most of the time at the Collie ring. It was then that I decided that this breed was for me as I saw the most handsome dog I had ever seen. He was the tricolour by the name of Beulah's Blanco Y Negro. He was Best of Breed on the day. I had to wait until I had completed my National Service before I could have my own Collie. In July 1957 arrived at my local Railway Station (dogs were carried on the Railways in those days) a 12 week old dog puppy named Light Cavalry of Ladypark. He taught me a lot even though he was not a top winner, but his last show he won Best in Show at London Collie Club Sanction Show. I met Barbara at a show, we courted and married in 1960. We then bought our first bitch by the name of Chuckalucks That's My Girl. She was not a show bitch but all Corydons go back to her. It was not until 1973 that we won our first CC with a dog called Corydon Quinault. In 1975 we made up our first Champion Ch Corydon Hippolyta who was a most beautiful sable bitch. Since then we have made up 27 UK Champions and our dogs have won nearly 200 CCs. In September 2019 we won a CC with our fiftieth CC winner. We had the breed record holder in Ch Phreelancer Phrosty Moon Over Corydon who was born in our kitchen. We had the top winning tricolour dog who had the longest name ever Ch Demelewis Dark Moon Driftin over Corydon. We bred Ch Corydon Handsome Hero who won 12 CCs a Group and Group 2, then went to Australia where the top judge in that Country said he was better than the dog he had awarded Best in Show at Crufts, We have bred or owned 90 Champions in 23 Countries. All have at least one parent bred by us.

I judged my first Championship Show at London Collie Club in 1983. My first Class had 59 minor puppy bitches entered. I think that this is the biggest class ever in this country. I judged the bitches at Crufts in 2003. I have judged this and other breeds in most countries in Europe plus Australia and New Zealand.

My wife died in 2010 and since then daughter Miranda has helped me with the dogs and they are now all in her name.
