*Introducing the Judges
All Rounder
Stella Clark (Astrellita)*

I had my first Rough Collie in 1967 - Deloraine Dinner Jacket, bred by the late Floss Chapman. He was the most magnificent colour, a deep mahogany with a huge white collar that almost reached down to his feet, something not seen very often these days. Having started to breed Collies, Les and I had some successful winners along the way. One of our most beloved Rough Collies was a tricolour - Astrellita Able Seaman.

It was when I met Judith White of Dancerwood fame at a London Collie Show that I fell in love with the Smooth Collie and have been besotted with ever since. I had a tricolour from Judith and she became Ch. Dancerwood Bewitched of Astrellita. One of the most famous Smooth's we bred was Ch. Astrellita The Silversmith.

I judged my first Open Show in 1973 and my first Rough Collie Championship show in 1985. Since then I have judged the breed at Championship shows 12 times including Crufts 2014 and Bitches at EACA in 2017. I have also judged in all the Scandinavian countries and many times across Europe, Russia, Argentina, South Africa and down under in New Zealand and Australia.

I give CC's in 5 other breeds and have judged over 50 Championship shows in Roughts, Beardies, Borders, Shelties and Great Danes. I am also qualified to judge at Group level, the Pastoral Group which I have now done 4 times including LKA 2022.

I have also written a book on Rough & Smooth Collies.

I have been associated with the EACA club for over 40 years and I am delighted to be able to judge COTY in 2023. I look forward to an enjoyable day with you all.

Introducing the Judges - Specialist Michaela Rukopf (vom Haus Rukopf)

My career in Collies started in 1995.

I got a rough collie puppy as a gift from my husband when my cat was killed in a car accident. Her name was Sally Ann vom Haus Reinhard and she was a daughter of Lynway Shadeed.

Although I had no breeding-plans at the time, it did not take long and this puppy became the foundation bitch of my kennel, and the first I took into the show ring.

My first litter was born in 1996, sired by Matai Captain Cook.

The collie virus caught me, I fell in love with the breed and it became a passion to show and breed.

Until today, I have bred 55 litters including about 20 national and international champions.

The first champion bred and owned by me was CH Galahad vom Haus Rukopf, born in 2001. He was also the most beautiful collie I have seen and owned.

After a few years of breeding I started to import a few dogs from abroad, I wanted to find my own line, not just reproduce what my first breeder had.

The very first dog I imported was Clubwinner Rickwood Morgan Spice, bred by Colin and Jean Lawson. He carried many beautiful and well-known dogs in his pedigree and was a super constructed dog and mover.

A few more followed from the kennels Birkmyre, Rossavon, di Cambiano and Corydon.

I started judging in 2010 and I have qualified for rough collie, smooth collie and sheltie, judging them on national and international show level.

I have had a couple of nice overseas appointments including Scandinavia, Benelux, Ireland and Iceland.

The most important things I look for in a collie are elegance, dignity and sound movement. These all come with a correct construction. I am worried that a sweet head seems to become more important than a good body and movement.

I feel very honored to have the chance to judge at this very special event today, which is my very first appointment in England, and I am really looking forward to it.
